To celebrate our latest full time location we are having an Open House at our North Andover facility on Friday September 26, 2008 from 2pm to 7pm. If you expect to attend, please help us by clicking the RSVP link below. This should provide us with a decent head count so we provide enough food and staff for the event:

RSVP

The event will offer you the opportunity to:

- Speak with our instructors
- Experience training demonstrations
- Meet others who care about keeping our roads safe
- Free food & prizes

Please feel free to bring along anyone else in your community that might be interested in learning more about our life saving program. Click below and share this email with your local school committee, friends in public safety, etc. As a champion of our program, we hope you can help make this a great day to spread the word about our training:

We hope to see you there!!!

Sincerely,
